

European Percid Fish Culture (EPFC) workshop 2014

Venue: Room “Ensayos 2”, Kursaal, Donostia-San Sebastian, SPAIN

Date: Tuesday, 14th October 2014, 12.00 – 18.00

Registration: Registration for the workshop is mandatory. Participation is free of charge. Please register yourself by sending an Email to epfc@aquaculture.cc indicating your contact details and short summary of your professional percid-related background by latest 6th October 2014.

Agenda:

Time	Detail	Presented by
12.00 – 14.00	REGISTRATION + ICE BREAKER
14.00 – 14.15	Opening and Welcome	S. Meyer, S. Teerlinck
14.15 – 16.00	GENETIC IMPROVEMENT APPROACHES in percid fish
	Selective breeding of fish for dummies	M. Vandeputte
	Design of a practical breeding program for Pikeperch	R. Blonk, A. Kamstra, H. Komen
	DIVERSIFY project and pikeperch-related activities	P. Fontaine
	An introduction to the MBRIC infrastructure project proposal	M. Vandeputte
	A cost action proposal to provide a meeting point for European initiatives on emerging aquaculture species	N. Duncan
16.00 – 16.30	Break, refreshments included
16.15 – 16.00	DEVELOPMENT OF COMMERCIAL PERCID CULTURE - COUNTRY EXPERIENCES
	New percids hatchery : Project PERCAFRANCE	J. Saint-Sevin
	Perch production in Ireland, a success, but what next?	D. Toner
	Is Turkey a good place to produce pikeperch?	T. Bodur
17.45 – 18.00	SUMMARY & CLOSING OF THE WORKSHOP	S. Teerlinck

EPFC and the EPFC workshop 2014 are kindly supported by:

Met steun van de Vlaamse overheid

